
StayWell Hospitality's first property

Oct 22, 2013

New entry Australia-based hotel management group, StayWell Hospitality Group forays into India with the launch of Leisure Inn Grand Chanakya Jaipur, Rajasthan. The group, which emphasises on location, value for money offerings and personalised services, has begun operations in a perfect location — an ideal focal point for both the business and leisure traveller. Leisure Inn Grand Chanakya offers extensive facilities for guests with well appointed rooms and international standard services.

Speaking on the occasion, Simon Wan, CEO & group managing director of StayWell said, “We are pleased to expand our portfolio in one of the biggest emerging markets in the world.

With the launch of Leisure Inn Grand Chanakya in Jaipur our growing reputation and brand presence will place us well for further property developments not only in India but also globally”.

Rohit Vig, MD for StayWell Hospitality in India added, “This is our first property in India and we are all excited with the launch.” He further revealed that the brand is set to open six more properties — Gurgaon, Mumbai, Greater Noida, Raipur, Hyderabad and Goa, within the next nine months and aims to have 25 properties across all key cities in India by 2015”.

Travel AND TourTM
WORLD