StayWell Hospitality opens its first Leisure Inn in Jaipur

StayWell Hospitality an Australia-based Group has decided to venture into the Indian market by opening its Leisure Inn Grand Chanakya Jaipur, Rajasthan.

The hotel is a 52-room property, which offers facilities such as complimentary Wi-Fi, work desk, tea and coffee making facilities, 24-hour room service, gymnasium, massage room and business centre.

CEO and Group Managing Director, StayWell Hospitality Group, Simon Wan said that they will be expanding their portfolio in one of the biggest emerging markets in the world. He added that the growing reputation and brand presence will place them well for further property developments not only in India but also globally.

The property also houses an array of F&B options. Featured in the hotel is Grand Chanakya, a Rajasthani specialty restaurant, marking the re-launch of the outlet.
